COLOUR GUIDE

1 Red — Top and bottom stripes — the blood of those who fought for freedom

2 Dark blue

Dark blue — Wide middle stripe — wealth and prosperity

3 White — The circle — the full moon and unity

DID YOU KNOW?

The white circle represents the full moon shining over the Mekong River, and also the unity of the Laotian people.

The Mekong River runs through Laos and is one of the great rivers of Asia — it's the lifeblood of the country.

Laos is the only landlocked country in Southeast Asia, surrounded by China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Thailand and Myanmar.

Laos was formerly known as "Land of a Million Elephants" — elephants are still an important symbol in Laotian culture.
