COLOUR GUIDE

1	Green	The top stripe
2	White	The middle stripe, and the little squiggles along its edges
3	Red	The bottom stripe, and the emblem in the middle

DID YOU KNOW?

The red emblem in the middle is made of four curved shapes and a sword. It is a stylised form of the word "Allah", and many people say it also looks like a tulip, an old symbol in Iranian culture.

The colours have meanings: green for growth and nature, white for peace, and red for bravery.

Iran is where the fluffy Persian cat comes from, and it was once the heart of the mighty Persian Empire.

Iran is famous for beautiful tiled mosques, ancient palaces like Persepolis, and colourful handmade Persian carpets.
