COLOUR GUIDE

1	Red	The top half — and the gaps inside the emblem above the middle line
2	Black	The bottom half — and the gaps inside the emblem below the middle line
3	Yellow	The emblem itself — the cogwheel, the machete and the star

DID YOU KNOW?

The half cogwheel stands for Angola's industry and the people who work in it.

The machete stands for farming — and for the struggle that led to Angola's independence in 1975.

The yellow star stands for progress, and yellow itself represents the country's rich mineral wealth.

Angola's official language is Portuguese, and it's one of the largest Portuguese-speaking countries in the world.
