DID YOU KNOW?

Paraguay's flag is the only national flag with a different design on each side! The front shows the national coat of arms (a star), and the back shows the treasury seal (a lion).

The gold star on the front is surrounded by palm and olive branches, standing for victory and peace. It's called the May Star, for Paraguay's independence in May 1811.

The red, white and blue colours are often said to have been inspired by the flag of France. They stand for courage, peace and liberty.

Paraguay is in the middle of South America and has no coastline. Instead it has huge rivers, the Paraguay and the Paraná, that boats use to reach the sea.
