DID YOU KNOW?

The vicuña on the shield stands for Peru's animals. It is a wild relative of the llama with very fine, soft wool.

The cinchona tree stands for Peru's plants. Its bark gave the world quinine, an early medicine against malaria.

The golden horn of plenty pouring out coins stands for Peru's mineral wealth.

Peru is home to Machu Picchu, the ancient Inca city high in the Andes. Red stands for the blood shed for independence, and white for peace.
