2	Yellow	The top stripe
3	Green	The bottom stripe
4	Black	The star

DID YOU KNOW?

The black star is the Black Star of Africa, standing for African unity, like the star on Ghana's flag.

Guinea-Bissau is a small country in West Africa, home to about 2 million people.

Off its coast are the Bijagós Islands, a group of about 88 islands.

Red stands for the blood shed for independence, yellow for wealth, and green for the land and forests.
