COLOUR GUIDE

1	White	The top half, the three towers and the scroll
2	Light blue	The bottom half, and the sky inside the shield
3	Gold	The crown and the frame around the shield
4	Green	The branches and the three hills under the towers

DID YOU KNOW?

The three towers on the flag are real! They stand on the three peaks of Mount Titano and are called Guaita, Cesta and Montale. You can still visit them today.

The word on the scroll is LIBERTAS, which means liberty (freedom). The white stands for peace and the clouds, and the blue for the sky.

San Marino is one of the smallest countries in the world. You could drive across it in about 20 minutes! It is completely surrounded by Italy.

San Marino says it is the oldest republic in the world, founded in the year 301, over 1,700 years ago, by a stonemason named Marinus.
