DID YOU KNOW?

The black star is the Black Star of Africa, representing the unity of Africa — the same symbol used in Ghana's flag.

Guinea-Bissau is a small country in West Africa with a population of about 2 million people.

Guinea-Bissau has an archipelago of 88 islands called the Bijagós Islands off its coast.

Red represents the blood shed for independence, yellow represents mineral wealth, and green represents the forests and land.
