1	Red	The band on the left and the middle stripe
2	White	The top stripe and the emblem
3	Green	The bottom stripe

DID YOU KNOW?

The white emblem is the national emblem of Oman: a curved dagger called a khanjar in its belt, crossed with two swords. The khanjar is worn on special occasions and is a proud symbol of Oman.

The red stands for battles fought in Oman's history, the white for peace, and the green for the fertile land and the green hills of the Jebel Akhdar mountains.

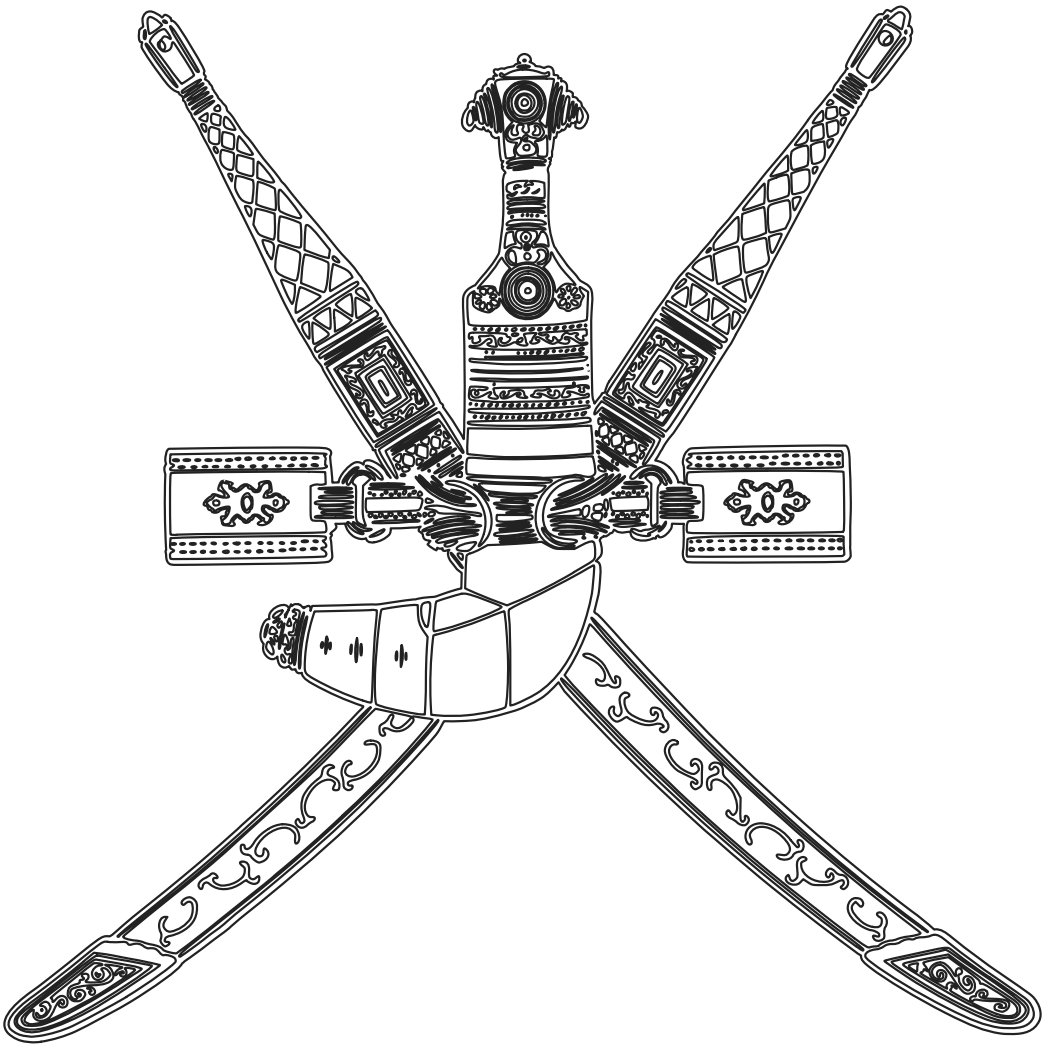

Oman is a country in the Middle East, on the Arabian Peninsula. It has golden deserts, rugged mountains and a long coastline on the Arabian Sea.

Oman is famous for frankincense, a sweet-smelling tree resin traded for thousands of years, and for its forts, camels and wooden sailing boats called dhows.

REAL COLOURS

1. White — The whole emblem: the dagger, its belt and the two swords
2. Red — The little gaps inside the emblem, where the red flag shows through

On the real flag the emblem is white on red, but you can colour the dagger and swords any way you like!
