DID YOU KNOW?

The middle of the real flag shows a triangle with five volcanoes, standing for the five countries of Central America that were once joined together.

Above the volcanoes is a rainbow and a red 'liberty cap' shining with light — symbols of peace and freedom.

Nicaragua's two blue stripes stand for the Pacific Ocean and the Caribbean Sea on either side of the country, and the white stands for peace and the land.

Nicaragua is the largest country in Central America, full of volcanoes, lakes and rainforests. It's home to colourful parrots, monkeys and turtles.
