DID YOU KNOW?

Paraguay's flag is the only national flag in the world with a different design on each side! The front shows the national coat of arms (a star), and the back shows the treasury seal (a lion).

The gold star on the front is surrounded by a wreath of palm and olive branches, standing for victory and peace. It's called the 'May Star' for Paraguay's independence in May 1811.

The red, white and blue colours were inspired by the flag of France and stand for independence, peace and liberty.

Paraguay is a small country in the middle of South America with no coastline. Instead it has huge rivers — the Paraguay and Paraná rivers — that boats use to reach the sea.
