2	White	The two thin stripes
3	Red	The wide stripe in the middle

DID YOU KNOW?

The colours have meanings: blue for the sky and opportunities, white for peace and wisdom, and red for the warmth of the people and their courage.

This is the everyday version of the flag. The government's version has Costa Rica's coat of arms in the red stripe, showing mountains, ships and a sunrise.

Costa Rica is famous for its rainforests and wildlife — it's home to sloths, toucans and monkeys, and has no army.

The stripe pattern was inspired by the flag of France, which is why Costa Rica added red to its earlier blue-and-white design in 1848.
