4	Orange	The 3rd stripe and the eagle

DID YOU KNOW?

The orange bird is an African fish eagle, flying free above the country. It stands for the people's freedom and their ability to rise above the nation's problems.

Green stands for Zambia's farms and forests, red for the struggle for freedom, black for the people of Zambia, and orange for the country's mineral wealth, especially copper.

Zambia's flag is unusual because the stripes and eagle sit in the corner rather than in the centre or along one edge, like many other flags.

Zambia is a country in southern Africa, home to Victoria Falls (shared with Zimbabwe) and the mighty Zambezi River, one of the longest rivers in Africa.
