DID YOU KNOW?

The colours have meanings: blue for the sky and opportunities, white for peace and wisdom, and red for the warmth of the people and their courage.

This is the state flag, with Costa Rica's coat of arms in a white oval: three volcanoes between two oceans, two sailing ships, a rising sun and seven stars, one for each province.

Costa Rica is famous for its rainforests and wildlife — it's home to sloths, toucans and monkeys, and has no army.

The stripe pattern was inspired by the flag of France, which is why Costa Rica added red to its earlier blue-and-white design in 1848.

REAL COLOURS

1	Light blue	The sky, and the "AMERICA CENTRAL" ribbon at the top
2	Blue	The two oceans
3	Green	The three volcanoes, the land, and the leaves
4	Gold	The frame around the shield, and the sun
5	Brown	The ships' hulls, and the dots on the sides of the frame
6	White	The seven stars, the sails, the smoke and the oval

The scroll reads "REPÚBLICA DE COSTA RICA". The little flag on the ship has the same stripes as the big flag.
