DID YOU KNOW?

The Dominican Republic is the only country in the world with a Bible on its flag. The coat of arms shows an open Bible with a small gold cross above it.

The shield is framed by a laurel branch (for victory) on one side and a palm branch (for peace) on the other. The ribbons read "Dios, Patria, Libertad" — God, Homeland, Liberty.

The blue stands for liberty, the red for the blood of heroes, and the white cross for salvation and faith.

The country shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti. Christopher Columbus landed on the island in 1492, on his first voyage to the Americas.

REAL COLOURS

1	Dark blue	The top ribbon, and the blue parts of the shield
2	Red	The bottom ribbon, the bow, and the red parts of the shield
3	White	The cross on the shield, and the pages of the Bible
4	Gold	The letters on the ribbons, the small cross, and the spear tips
5	Green	The laurel branch (left) and the palm branch (right)

The laurel branch has little red berries. The flags behind the Bible are blue, white and red, like the big flag.
