The tree in the middle is a silk-cotton tree (also called a God tree). An important treaty was once signed under one of these trees.

The six yellow stars above the shield stand for the mainland part of the country and its five main islands.

The colours mean: green for the forests, blue for the sea that links the islands to the mainland, white for peace and red for the fight for independence.

Equatorial Guinea is the only country in Africa where Spanish is an official language. The scroll under the tree reads "UNIDAD PAZ JUSTICIA" — Unity, Peace, Justice.
