DID YOU KNOW?

The golden bird is a double-headed eagle, an ancient symbol with two heads looking both east and west. It holds a sceptre and an orb, signs of a ruler's power, and wears a crown.

On the eagle's chest is a blue shield showing a golden lion walking across green grass, an old symbol of the country's rulers.

The red field with a gold border is a very royal design. Montenegro was once a kingdom ruled by princes and kings.

The name Montenegro means 'Black Mountain'. It's a small, rugged country on the Adriatic Sea with dramatic mountains, deep canyons and beautiful old coastal towns.
