DID YOU KNOW?

The gold bird is the Eagle of Saladin, named after a famous ruler from long ago. It is a symbol used across the Arab world.

The three colours tell a story: red for the country's past struggles, white for a peaceful future, and black for the end of hard times under earlier rulers.

On the eagle's chest is a small shield with the flag's colours, and below it a scroll that reads 'Arab Republic of Egypt' in Arabic.

Egypt is home to the Pyramids of Giza and the Great Sphinx, built over 4,500 years ago — the only one of the ancient wonders of the world still standing.
